MARIAN ILITCH

Owner/Secretary-Treasurer

Marian Ilitch is a leading entrepreneur in the food, sports and entertainment industries and is widely recognized as one of the most successful businesswomen in the country.

Working hand-in-hand, Marian and her husband and lifetime business partner, Mike Ilitch (1929-2017), grew a single Little Caesars pizza store into the third largest pizza chain in the world with stores in more than 20 countries and territories worldwide, including in each of the 50 U.S. states.

Avid hockey fans, the couple expanded their business interests when they purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. Under their ownership, the Red Wings have won 16 divisional championships, six President's Trophies, six Campbell Bowls and four Stanley Cups.

Through the years, the Ilitch-owned businesses have grown to also include Blue Line Distribution, Olympia Entertainment, the Detroit Tigers, Olympia Development of Michigan, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Ilitch Holdings, Inc. and Champion Foods. Additionally, the organization has a joint venture interest in 313 Presents. Marian also owns MotorCity Casino Hotel.

Today, the Ilitch organization is developing The District Detroit, a dynamic urban destination that provides a dense neighborhood experience featuring a variety of developments alongside Detroit's premier sports and entertainment venues. This includes the new highly innovative and state-of-the-art Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons, and the recipient of the 2018 Sports Facility of the Year award, presented by Sports Business Journal.

Giving back to the community has been one of Marian's trademarks since her early days in business. As the parents of children who played hockey, Marian and Mike established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of young people to play hockey. Additional programs to better the community include the Little Caesars Love Kitchen, Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, and the Little Caesars Veterans Program.

Since 2000, grants and giving from Marian and Mike, the Ilitch companies and its charitable affiliates have totaled $190 million. This includes Marian and Mike's personal gifts of nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million to build a new home for the Mike Ilitch School of Business, prominently located on Woodward Avenue.

CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

President & CEO, Ilitch Holdings, Inc.
Governor, President and CEO, Detroit Red Wings

Christopher Ilitch leads and provides oversight to the Ilitch companies - the businesses that were founded or purchased by Detroit entrepreneurs Mike (1929-2017) and/or Marian Ilitch. These businesses include: Little Caesars Pizza, Blue Line Distribution, the Detroit Red Wings, Olympia Entertainment, the Detroit Tigers, Olympia Development of Michigan, Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, Champion Foods, and MotorCity Casino Hotel The organization also has a joint venture interest in 313 Presents. Together, these companies have grown to over $3.8 billion in revenue and employ 24,000 colleagues.

Christopher has held a variety of roles throughout the organization over the past 32 years. Currently, in addition to his leadership of Ilitch Holdings, he serves as the governor, president and CEO of the Detroit Red Wings, as well as the chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers. Christopher is also actively engaged in the community and numerous charitable causes as Chairman of Ilitch Charities, a nonprofit organization that promotes charitable purposes aimed at developing communities and enhancing lives. The Ilitch organization and its foundations have given $190 million in grants and giving since 2000.

As governor, president and CEO of the Red Wings, Christopher oversees both business and hockey operations decisions for the organization. Following the 2018-19 season, Christopher welcomed Steve Yzerman back to the Red Wings as executive vice president and general manager, tabbing Detroit's former captain as the 11th general manager in franchise history. Under Ilitch ownership, the Red Wings have won four Stanley Cup championships and qualified for the playoffs in 25-consecutive seasons from 1991-2016.

Christopher is currently overseeing the development of a sports and entertainment district centered in heart of downtown Detroit that created 20,000 construction and construction related jobs and 3,000 permanent new jobs for Detroiters and Michiganders. This dynamic sports and entertainment district is comprised of eight world-class theatres, the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, four professional sports teams and three multi-use sports facilities, including Comerica Park and the new, state-of-the-art, award-winning Little Caesars Arena – home of the Detroit Red Wings, the Detroit Pistons and world-class entertainment and community events. This long-term, transformational work continues the Ilitch's long-standing commitment to improving and investing in its hometown of Detroit. The District Detroit will continue to evolve with future and current development work to include commercial, retail, and residential projects that will bring even more vibrancy and density to the area and will include work with women-owned and minority-owned developers and retailers.

Beyond his work at the Ilitch companies, Christopher is an active business leader across the state of Michigan and in the City of Detroit. He serves on the board, executive committee and nominating committee for Business Leaders for Michigan and the board and executive committee for the Downtown Detroit Partnership. He is also a member of the board of directors for the Detroit Economic Club. Christopher is also a member of the Harvard Kennedy School Taubman Center for State and Local Government Advisory Board.

Christopher has served on host/hospitality committees for several large-scale sporting events in Detroit, including the 2010 NCAA Men's Frozen Four Hockey Championship (co-chair), the 2009 NCAA Final Four Men's Basketball Tournament, Super Bowl XL and the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star game (chair).

An avid baseball and hockey player in his youth, Christopher is an alumnus of Little Caesars Amateur Hockey and as co-captain won a state championship in high school at Cranbrook Kingswood in 1983.

Christopher holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. He and his wife Kelle have three children and reside in metro Detroit.

JIM DEVELLANO

Senior Vice President/Alternate Governor

Jim Devellano enters his 39th season with the Detroit Red Wings and celebrates his 54th season overall in the National Hockey League in 2020-21. His tenure with the Red Wings makes him the longest-serving hockey employee in the history of the team. Devellano continues to be a driving force behind Detroit's success, as well as a strong influence in the evolution and improvement of the league itself. Devellano can be credited with carefully building Detroit's 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008 Stanley Cup Championship teams through the Entry Draft, savvy trades and aggressive free agent acquisitions.

He choreographed the Red Wings' steady rise into the powerful club that has reached the Stanley Cup Final six times and lifted the coveted Cup in triumph four times, giving Devellano his fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh Stanley Cup rings (three with New York Islanders and four with Detroit).

Devellano was the first individual hired by owners Mike and Marian Ilitch after purchasing the Red Wings in June, 1982. He was the team's general manager for eight seasons before ascending to his current position as senior vice-president on July 13, 1990. An excellent judge of talent throughout his 53 years in the NHL, Devellano believes that building a solid foundation begins with a capable scouting staff and strong Entry Draft selections. Evidence of the wisdom in this plan can be seen in Devellano's first draft as Red Wings general manager when he tabbed future Hall-of-Famer Steve Yzerman in the 1983 Entry Draft to be the cornerstone of the franchise.

Devellano was one of the first NHL general managers to assemble a strong European scouting staff back in 1984, a progressive move that has produced several Red Wings standouts including Russians Sergei Fedorov, Slava Kozlov, Vladimir Konstantinov and Pavel Datsyuk, and Swedes Nicklas Lidstrom, Tomas Holmstrom, Henrik Zetterberg, Johan Franzen and Niklas Kronwall.

Through the course of Devellano's tenure with the Red Wings, Detroit has participated in 10 conference finals (1987, '88, '95, '96, '97, '98, '02, '07, '08, '09) and six Stanley Cup Finals (1995, '97, '98, '02, '08, '09), collected six Presidents' Trophies (1995, '96, '02, '04, '06, '08), eight regular-season Western Conference championships (1994, '95, '96, '02, '04, '06, '07, '08) and 16 division championships (1988, '89, '92, '94, '95, '96, '99, '01, '02, '03, '04, '06, '07, '08, '09, '11).

Devellano is the proud owner of 17 championship rings. His impressive collection includes: seven Stanley Cup rings (N.Y. Islanders 1980, 1981, 1982 and Detroit 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008), five Calder Cup championship rings in the American Hockey League with Adirondack (1986, 1989 and 1992) and Grand Rapids (2013 and 2017), two Adams Cup championship rings in the Central Hockey League (Fort Worth 1978 and Indianapolis 1982), and one Riley Cup championship ring in the East Coast Hockey League (Toledo 1994). Devellano also added a pair of Major League Baseball American League championship rings in 2006 and 2012 while serving as senior vice-president of the Detroit Tigers.

In addition to his duties as senior vice-president, Devellano serves as the team's alternate on the NHL's Board of Governors.

His litany of accomplishments while in Detroit earned him induction into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

He has been instrumental in many historical decisions in the National Hockey League. In 1980, it was Devellano who campaigned to have the annual NHL Entry Draft moved from a hotel ballroom into various NHL arenas, transforming the draft into an exciting fan-friendly event for fans of all NHL teams to witness what occurs with each team as the draft takes place. Devellano was also responsible for bringing the Entry Draft to the United States for the very first time on June 13, 1987, at Joe Louis Arena. Additionally, it was at Devellano's suggestion that the NHL instituted a new overtime format beginning with the 1999-00 season that included skating four aside as well as one point for each team following a five-minute overtime and an additional point if a team is victorious in overtime.

Having served as a teacher and mentor to numerous front office personnel over the years, Devellano's influence has reached several NHL clubs. Currently, there are four NHL general managers who have succeeded under Devellano's tutelage - Detroit General Manager Steve Yzerman, Ken Holland of the Edmonton Oilers, Jim Nill of the Dallas Stars and Don Waddell of the Carolina Hurricanes.

Devellano, 77, did not play professional hockey, but rose through the ranks in various capacities in his native Toronto. Joining former Red Wings coach Scotty Bowman, he became a scout with the St. Louis Blues in 1967 when the NHL expanded from six to 12 teams. Also, it was Devellano's strong recommendation to owner Mike Ilitch that led to Scotty Bowman's hiring by the Wings.

Joining the New York Islanders as a scout when that club was founded in 1972, Devellano's scouting skills helped build a team that won four consecutive Stanley Cup titles (1980-83). It was Devellano who highly recommended that Islanders GM, Bill Torrey, hire Al Arbour to coach the club. Arbour was captain of the St. Louis Blues when Devellano scouted for the franchise. The recommendation turned out better than expected as Arbour guided the Islanders to four consecutive Stanley Cup championships. In 1979-80, he became general manager of the Islanders' Indianapolis (CHL) farm club and was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. He returned to New York in 1981 as the Islanders' assistant general manager.

Devellano's extraordinary contributions to the cities of St. Louis, Indianapolis, New York and Detroit helped earn him the Lester Patrick Award in October, 2009, for his outstanding service to the sport of hockey in the United States. Devellano also reached the pinnacle of his profession when he was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the Builder Category on November 8, 2010, in Toronto.

Devellano is currently a member of the International Society of Hockey Research and is part owner of the Indianapolis Indians (AAA) baseball team as well as the Ontario Hockey League's Saginaw Spirit. He authored a book in 2008, "The Road To Hockeytown", that chronicles his more than 40 incredible years in the game of hockey.

On a personal level, in 2003 Devellano set up two private foundations supporting mostly children's charities in the United States and Canada.

Devellano resides in Detroit and Sarasota, Florida.

STEVE YZERMAN

Executive Vice President/General Manager

Steve Yzerman begins his second season as executive vice president and general manager after returning to the Red Wings on April 19, 2019. Yzerman previously spent 27 seasons with the organization as a player (1983-06) and within the hockey operations department (2006-10). Yzerman is just the 11th individual to serve as general manager of the team, assuming the role after spending the previous nine seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's general manager (2010-18) and as a senior advisor to the general manager (2018-19).

As general manager of the Lightning, Yzerman built Tampa Bay as a Stanley Cup contender through drafting and development. Yzerman drafted or signed a core of players which includes Tyler Johnson, Alex Killorn, Nikita Kucherov, Ondrej Palat, Brayden Point and Andrei Vasilevskiy and secured the likes of Victor Hedman, Steven Stamkos and Kucherov with long-term contracts. Yzerman also bolstered the team with several trades, including Ryan McDonagh, J.T. Miller and Mikhail Sergachev. Yzerman stepped down as general manager to become a senior advisor prior the 2018-19 campaign, a season in which the Lightning tied the NHL record for wins in a season (62), matched by only the 1995-96 Red Wings team.

From 2014-19, no team won more games (300) or scored more goals (1,554) than the Lightning, and the franchise ranked fifth overall in victories during Yzerman's time in Tampa Bay, compiling a 402-238-64 mark over that span. Tampa Bay qualified for the playoffs in six-of-nine seasons since Yzerman joined the organization, highlighted by a trip to the 2015 Stanley Cup Final. Additionally, Yzerman won the 2015 NHL General Manager of the Year Award. The Lightning made four appearances in the Eastern Conference Final since 2010-11, including three times in a four-season span (2014-15 to 2017-18). Tampa Bay logged 82 playoff games with Yzerman as general manager (2010-18), and their 47-35 mark in those games is fourth-best in the league over that stretch.

Prior to his time with Tampa Bay, Yzerman spent four seasons as Vice President/Hockey with the Red Wings, working alongside senior vice president Jim Devellano and then-general manager Ken Holland. Yzerman won his first Stanley Cup (2008) as a member of the management team after leading Detroit to three as a player (1997, 1998, 2002). Yzerman has also worked extensively with Hockey Canada, first serving as General Manager for Canada at the 2007 IIHF World Championship (gold) and the 2008 IIHF World Championship (silver). He also helped Canada capture back-to-back gold medals at the 2010 and 2014 Winter Olympics, under the leadership of Yzerman as Executive Director and Holland as Associate Director.

He oversees all aspects of hockey operations for the Griffins including player personnel decisions, player development, contract negotiations and player movement.

Prior to joining the Red Wings in 2005, Martin practiced law from 1998-1999 in Denver, Colorado with the firm of Messner & Reeves, LLC, specializing in corporate, commercial transactional, and taxation law. Pat Verbeek is in his second season as assistant general manager with the Red Wings after returning to the organization on May 6, 2019. Verbeek works alongside fellow assistant general manager Ryan Martin in the Red Wings' front office and focuses on player personnel decisions, reporting directly to executive vice president and general manager Steve Yzerman.

Verbeek, 56, has 14 years of front-office experience. He began his post-playing career as a professional scout for the Red Wings, working four seasons in the position from 2006-10, including the team's Stanley Cup championship in 2008. Verbeek joined the Lightning shortly after Yzerman was hired in Tampa Bay, originally as director of professional scouting, a position he held for two seasons prior to being promoted to assistant general manager and director of player personnel. The Sarnia, Ontario, native held that position for seven seasons (2012-19) and was responsible for oversight of the team's professional scouting operations, player recruiting and contract negotiations and overall support to Tampa Bay's hockey operations department and general manager.

Verbeek also worked as director of player personnel for Team North America at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey, and previously had international management experience for Hockey Canada at the 2015 IIHF World Championship, in which Canada won the gold medal. In his current role, Fischer splits his time between North America and Europe to scout potential free agent acquisitions playing in the college hockey ranks and high European professional leagues. He also aids the team's amateur scouting operation in identifying draft-eligible players for the annual NHL Entry Draft.

SHAWN HORCOFF

Director of Player Development/
Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Shawn Horcoff enters his fifth season as the Red Wings' director of player development and second as assistant director of player personnel, joining the Red Wings prior to the 2016-17 season after a 1,008-game NHL career. The 42-year-old oversees and evaluates Detroit's prospects playing at the junior or collegiate level or in Europe. He is also tasked with running the team's Development Camp, which is held at the BELFOR Training Center inside Little Caesars Arena following the NHL Entry Draft. During the annual five-day camp, a group of recent Red Wings draft picks, free agent signings and undrafted invitees receive daily on-ice instruction and skill development from Horcoff and a team of coaches within the organization, take part in off-ice workouts and attend classes designed to help players make smooth transitions to the life of a professional hockey player.

Dan Cleary begins his fourth season in Detroit's front-office after transitioning to a player development role prior to the 2017-18 season following a 19-year professional hockey career. As assistant director of player development, Cleary works closely with director of player development Shawn Horcoff to evaluate, coach and mentor Detroit's prospects playing in major junior leagues and collegiate teams throughout North America, as well as Europe and the Red Wings' developmental affiliates in Grand Rapids (AHL) and Toledo (ECHL).

Cleary, 41, has been with the Red Wings organization since 2005-06. Formerly a first-round pick (13th overall) of the Chicago Blackhawks in the 1997 NHL Entry Draft, Cleary spent the first eight years of his professional career between the Blackhawks, Edmonton Oilers and Phoenix Coyotes, as well as the AHL's Portland Pirates and Hamilton Bulldogs, IHL's Indianapolis Ice and one season with Mora IK in the Swedish Elite League. After coming to Red Wings training camp as a professional tryout, Cleary earned a contract and spent the next 10 seasons with the Red Wings, highlighted by three 20-goal seasons and a Stanley Cup championship in 2008.

After spending two seasons with the Grand Rapids Griffins from 2015-17, Cleary ended his playing career with 387 points (165-222-387) and 492 penalty minutes in 938 NHL games, in addition to 119 points (36-83-119) and 203 penalty minutes in 136 career AHL and IHL games. NIKLAS KRONWALL

Advisor to the General Manager

Niklas Kronwall announced his retirement from the National Hockey League on Sept. 3, 2019, and is in his second season with the Red Wings front office after beginning in 2019-20 as advisor to the general manager. Kronwall works closely with all areas of Detroit's hockey operations staff, offering insight an analysis gained through his decorated 15-season NHL career.

Kronwall, 39, played all of his 953 NHL games with the Red Wings since making his NHL debut in 2003-04. He finished his career third in franchise history in games played by a defenseman (and ninth overall) and fourth in points, trailing only Nicklas Lidstrom, Reed Larson and Red Kelly. Since his first full-time NHL campaign in 2006-07, Kronwall never finished lower than third in points by a Red Wings defenseman, and he led the team's blueliners in scoring on five occasions.

Kronwall's on-ice accolades are highlighted by a 2008 Stanley Cup championship, in which he most frequently paired with Brad Stuart as part of a formidable top-four which included Lidstrom and Brian Rafalski. The Stockholm, Sweden, native also joined the exclusive "Triple Gold Club" with the championship in 2008, to go along with gold medals at the 2006 Olympics and IIHF World Championship. Kronwall and his wife make their home in Metro Detroit and have two sons.

MARK HOWE

Director of Pro Scouting

Mark Howe enters his 26th year as part of Detroit's front office and his 29th season overall with the organization. After ending his professional hockey career on September 28, 1995, Howe joined the Red Wings front office as an assistant to the hockey operations department. In that capacity he began scouting the International Hockey League and American Hockey League. His energies, however, were primarily focused on preparing promising young defensemen within the organization for the National Hockey League at the club's minor-league affiliates.

Howe has his name engraved on the Stanley Cup four times. He was a pro scout for Detroit's championship runs in 1997, '98 and '02 and was in his current role as the club's director of pro scouting for the Red Wings' last title in 2008. Mark has repeated Howe family history as his father, Gordie, won a total of four Stanley Cup titles during his playing career with the Red Wings (1950, '52, '54 and '55).

Playing first in the World Hockey Association and then in the NHL, Howe finished his career as the second-highest scoring defenseman in professional hockey with 1,246 points (197G-545A-742P in 929 NHL games; 208G-296A-504P in 426 WHA games). Howe played three seasons with the Hartford Whalers and 10 with the Philadelphia Flyers, before returning to his hometown Detroit, inking a free-agent deal with the Red Wings on July 8, 1992. He finished his playing career in the Motor City, appearing in 122 regular-season games and collecting eight goals and 64 points.

Howe was a First Team NHL All-Star defenseman in 1983, '86 and '87. In 1985-86, he led the league with a +85 rating, and followed with a +57 rating to pace all NHL defensemen in 1986-87. He was runner-up for the Norris Trophy in both 1986 and 1987, and was selected to five NHL All-Star Games (1981, '83, '85, '86 and '88). For all of his incredible achievements on the ice, Mark was inducted into the National Hockey League Hall of Fame in the player category on November 14, 2011, in Toronto.

Mark currently resides in New Jersey and has three children: Travis, Nolan and Azia.

KRIS DRAPER

Director of Amateur Scouting

Kris Draper enters his 10th season in the Red Wings' front office and his 27th year overall with the organization. Draper was named Detroit's director of amateur scouting prior to the 2019-20 season after working the previous eight seasons as assistant to the general manager. Draper's expanded role has him oversee the franchise's amateur scouting department, run the NHL Entry Draft and assist the Red Wings' management team in various hockey operations decisions.

Since retiring after the 2010-11 season, Draper began working closely with Detroit's hockey operations department as assistant to the general manager, in which he provided player evaluations at both the professional and amateur levels and input regarding potential trades and free agent signings.

Draper announced his retirement as a player in July 2011 after 20 seasons in the National Hockey League. He was originally a third-round pick (62nd overall) of the Winnipeg Jets in the 1989 NHL Entry Draft. Draper played 20 games over three seasons in Winnipeg before the Jets dealt him to Detroit on June 30, 1993, in exchange for future considerations.

Draper spent the next 17 seasons in the Motor City. He became a fixture in Detroit's lineup during the 1993-94 season and played center on what became known as the 'Grind Line' with Kirk Maltby, and at different times, Darren McCarty and Joe Kocur. They formed one of the most revered lines in Red Wings history and played an integral role in helping Detroit end a 42-year drought by capturing the 1997 Stanley Cup with a sweep of the Philadelphia Flyers. Draper was also part of championship runs by the Red Wings in 1998, 2002 and 2008. He joined Nicklas Lidstrom, Tomas Holmstrom, Kirk Maltby and Darren McCarty as the only players to hoist the Cup in each of Detroit's last four championship seasons.

The Toronto, Ontario, native enjoyed his best statistical season in 2003-04. He registered career-highs with 24 goals, 40 points and five shorthanded goals in just 67 games. Despite the jump in his offensive production, Draper's defensive responsibilities never wavered and he was rewarded with the 2004 Frank J. Selke Trophy as the NHL's top defensive forward.

Recognized throughout his career as one of the top penalty killers and face-off men in the NHL, Draper also played a vital role by checking the top lines of opponents and wearing down opposing defenses with his speed and tenacity. He became the fifth player in team history to play 1,000 games in a Red Wings sweater, joining Gordie Howe, Alex Delvecchio, Steve Yzerman and Nicklas Lidstrom. Draper never missed the playoffs during his 17 seasons in Detroit and appeared in 220 postseason games for the Red Wings, second in club history behind only Nicklas Lidstrom (263).

Kris and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Kennedi and Kamryn, and a son, Kienan. The Drapers reside in Bloomfield Hills.

JEFF BLASHILL

Head Coach

Jeff Blashill enters his sixth season as head coach of the Red Wings. The 46-year-old has accumulated nine seasons with the organization, spending the 2011-12 campaign as an assistant coach for Detroit before serving as head coach of the Grand Rapids Griffins, Detroit's American Hockey League affiliate, from 2012-15. After leading the Griffins to three of the most successful campaigns in the franchise's history, he ascended to his current role on June 9, 2015.

Over his first five seasons as head coach for Detroit, Blashill has overseen a transitional period for the organization, and his previous accolades at the college and minor-league level has aided the Red Wings in developing high draft picks into everyday NHL players. Among the players who have worked their way up the depth chart during Blashill's tenure are Dylan Larkin, Anthony Mantha, Tyler Bertuzzi and Filip Hronek.

In his first season with the Red Wings, Blashill guided the club to its 25th consecutive postseason appearance, extending a streak that finished as the third-longest in NHL history. Blashill posted the sixth-best winning percentage (0.567) of any first-year head coach in Red Wings history. Through four seasons with the team, Blashill's head coaching record stands at 136-145-47.

Blashill was also tabbed as head coach of the United States at the IIHF World Championship in three-straight seasons from 2017-2019. At the 2017 event, jointly held in Paris, France, and Cologne, Germany, Blashill guided a roster that included current Red Wings Dylan Larkin and Danny DeKeyser to a 6-1 record through group play, though the team fell to Finland in the quarterfinals. The following year, the United States was again 6-1 in group play and defeated Canada for the second time in the tournament during the bronze medal game, marking just the fifth time in the history of the tournament that Team USA has come away with a medal.

Blashill previously had experience with USA Hockey at the 2006 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament (silver medal), 2009 World Junior A Challenge (gold medal) and 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship (fifth place).

Blashill is the 27th coach in franchise history, the first American to lead the Red Wings and just the third Michigan native to coach any major Detroit sports team, joining Steve Mariucci (Detroit Lions, 2003-05) and Dave DeBusschere (Detroit Pistons, 1964-67).

Blashill's time in Grand Rapids was highlighted by a 2012-13 campaign that saw Grand Rapids capture a regular-season Midwest Division title and eventually the first Calder Cup championship in the franchise's 17-year history. In 2014-15, the Griffins won the Midwest Division after reaching 100 points for the first time during Blashill's tenure with a 46-22-6-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record over the AHL's 76-game slate. The club advanced to the Western Conference Final for the second time in three seasons before falling to the Utica Comets in six games. In the 80-year history of the American Hockey League, no team played more playoff games (50) than the Griffins did during Blashill's run as head coach.

Born in Detroit and raised in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Blashill won the Louis A. R. Pieri Memorial Award as the AHL's most outstanding coach in 2013-14 and was named head coach for the 2014 AHL All-Star Classic. In his three seasons with Grand Rapids, he compiled a 134-71-12-11 regular-season record and a 29-21 mark in the postseason, winning seven of nine total playoff series. He was the first coach in Griffins history to qualify for the playoffs in three consecutive seasons, leading the team to 92 points or better each year. Not including players who went to Grand Rapids on conditioning stints, 35 players who skated for the Griffins over his three seasons went on to play at least one NHL game.

Blashill joined the Red Wings' organization after one season as the head coach at Western Michigan University in 2010-11, where he doubled the Broncos win total from the previous season and led the school to its first appearance in the CCHA Championship game since 1986. He finished as a finalist for CCHA Coach of the Year, and was named National Coach of the Year by College Hockey News, Inside College Hockey and USCHO.com. Blashill made his head coaching debut with the United States Hockey League's Indiana Ice, compiling a 72-43-5 mark as head coach and general manager from 2008-10. The Ice earned a franchise-record 39 wins in 2008-09 and won the Clark Cup as champions of the USHL. He also developed nine players that played in the NHL or were selected in the NHL Entry Draft.

He began his coaching career with four seasons as an assistant coach for Ferris State University from 1998-02, followed by six seasons in the same role with Miami University in which the RedHawks qualified for the NCAA tournament four times. While overseeing the RedHawks' recruiting efforts, he brought in three Hobey Baker Finalists, six NCAA All-Americans and 11 first- or second-team All-CCHA players.

A goaltender in his playing days, Blashill spent his collegiate career at Ferris State and was the Bulldogs' Rookie of the Year in 1994-95, earned a spot on the CCHA All-Academic Team in 1996-97 and won FSU's President's Award in three consecutive years for having the highest grade-point-average on the Bulldogs. In 78 games over his four seasons in Big Rapids, he held a 27-36-5 record with two shutouts. He previously spent three seasons with the USHL's Des Moines Buccaneers, helping the team to a Clark Cup championship in 1992. He is one of two people in league history to win the Clark Cup as both a player and head coach.

Jeff and his wife, Erica, reside in Plymouth with three children: Teddy, Josie and Owen.

DAN BYLSMA

Assistant Coach

Dan Bylsma begins his third season with the Red Wings, joining the coaching staff after working as an assistant coach alongside head coach Jeff Blashill on the United States' coaching staff at the 2018 IIHF World Championship in Copenhagen and Herning, Denmark, where the Americans took home a bronze medal. Bylsma is a 2009 Stanley Cup champion and 2011 Jack Adams Award recipient.

Bylsma's previous coaching experience came most recently with the Buffalo Sabres, where he spent two seasons as head coach from 2015-17. In Bylsma's first year in western New York, he helped the Sabres better their win total from 23 to 35, increase their goals for from 161 to 201, decrease their goals against from 274 to 222 and improve power play and penalty kill which each ranked last in the NHL in 2014-15 to 12th and ninth, respectively, in 2015-16. After parting ways with the Sabres, he spent the 2017-18 season away from coaching until his stint with USA Hockey but was a regular contributor on NHL Network.

Prior to his time in Buffalo, Bylsma served as head coach of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 2008-14, compiling a 252-117-32 mark over 401 regular-season games and a 43-35 record in 78 NHL playoff games. After taking over as Pittsburgh's head coach during the 2008-09, earning a promotion from the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins, Bylsma guided the club to an 18-3-4 regular-season finish en route to defeating the Red Wings in the 2009 Stanley Cup Final. Pittsburgh won three division championships under Bylsma, reaching 100-or-more regular-season points each season (except for the NHL's shortened 48-game season in 2012-13). In 2011, Bylsma won the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's top coach. In total, the 49-year-old is 320-190-55 as an NHL head coach.

The Grand Haven, Mich., native started his coaching career in 2004-05 as an assistant coach for the AHL's Cincinnati Mighty Ducks, prior to moving on to work in the same role with the New York Islanders in 2005-06. He also has additional international experience with USA Hockey, serving as head coach for the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia, and winning his first bronze medal at the 2015 IIHF World Championship in Prague and Ostrava, Czech Republic.

As a player, Bylsma appeared in 429 NHL games with the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Mighty Ducks between 1995-04, picking up 62 points (19-43-62) and 184 penalty minutes. He logged 840 games as a professional, including his 95 games in the AHL with the Rochester Americans, Albany River Rats, Moncton Hawks, Lowell Lock Monsters and Cincinnati Mighty Ducks; 85 games in the ECHL for the Greensboro Monarchs; and 231 games in the International Hockey League with the Phoenix Roadrunners and Long Beach Ice Dogs, in a playing career that spanned 1992-04. Byslma and his wife, Mary Beth, have one son, Bryan.

During Houda's tenure with the club, the Bruins compiled a 428-264-94 record, seventh-best in the NHL over that span. In addition to his numerous television assignments for CBC, Daniels was also the voice of morning sports for Toronto's all-sports radio station, The Fan 590, for eight years.

Ken won a Michigan Emmy in 2006 when he called a Red Wings-Ottawa Senators game from between the benches at Joe Louis Arena. In 2011, he was named the winner of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association's Ty Tyson Award for broadcast excellence. In 2017, Ken became an author, telling his life and broadcasting story in "If These Walls Could Talk - Detroit Red Wings."

Ken's son Jamie had often joked, that dad needed a "summer job." Unfortunately, he gave him one. Ken is co-founder of the Jamie Daniels Foundation, (www.jamiedanielsfoundation.org), dedicated to ending the shame and stigma that surrounds drug addiction, and building a long-term safe sober living home in southeast Michigan.

Ken is working in tandem with 'The Children's Foundation', in his awareness efforts and recently the Jamie Daniels Foundation wrote a $30,000 grant to MSU to aid their recovery housing effort. Jamie died in Florida at 23, on December 7, 2016. The family, including Jamie's sister Arlyn contends," it's not the years in the life, but the life in the years."

MICKEY REDMOND has 42 years of broadcasting experience and serves as color analyst on Red Wings television broadcasts. Redmond is a highly-regarded analyst whose broadcast resume includes work on nationally-televised games for FOX Sports, ESPN (including ESPN International broadcasts of the 1997 and 1998 Stanley Cup Finals) and CBC's Hockey Night In Canada. During the 2001 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Redmond worked with ABC as the rinkside reporter for the Detroit broadcasts.

Mickey twice was a 50-goal scorer in five full seasons with Detroit after being acquired from Montréal with Guy Charron and Bill Collins for Frank Mahovlich in January, 1971. He scored 52 goals and made the NHL's First All-Star Team in 1973, then netted 51 the next season to earn a Second-Team berth. 97.1 FM THE TICKET

97.1 FM The Ticket (along with WXYT AM 1270) begins its 20th year as the flagship radio station of the Red Wings and will broadcast all of Detroit's regular-season and playoff games.

The radio team of play-by-play announcer Ken Kal and analyst Paul Woods return for their 26th season together behind the microphone of the Wings' flagship station.

KEN KAL begins his 26th season as the radio play-by-play man for the Red Wings. Prior to joining the Detroit organization, Kal handled the play-by-play duties for University of Michigan hockey for 11 years on Ann Arbor AM stations - seven on WTKA after the first four on WAAM, during which time he also covered the Red Wings as a reporter. Born and raised in the city of Detroit, Kal began his radio career immediately following graduation from Wayne State University in 1979 with his first job at WAAM, handling sports and working as an on-air personality.

In addition to his broadcast duties, Kal represents the Red Wings in the community by visiting schools or business groups and hosting a variety of team events. Rounding out his administrative duties, Ken also works with the broadcast department to expand the Red Wings radio network and maintain affiliate relations. Kal received the DSBA's Ty Tyson Award for broadcast excellence in 2007 and has been honored by Hour Detroit Magazine in 2015 and 2016 for best play-by-play in Detroit. He is also a board member of the National Polish-American Sports Hall of Fame. Ken and his wife, Darlene, reside in St. Clair Shores and enjoy boating and traveling.

PAUL WOODS is back for his 34th season as color analyst for the Red Wings, a career which began shortly after the conclusion of his playing days in the NHL. A native of Hespeler, Ontario, Woods was drafted by Montréal in 1975. He never played for the Canadiens, but was obtained by Detroit in the 1977 waiver draft. His seven-year stint with the Red Wings began in 1977-78 and ended after the 1983-84 season. A former captain for Detroit, he finished his NHL career with 72 goals and 124 assists in 501 regular-season games.

CENTURY MARKED

Among the more significant milestones reached by the Red Wings in 2019-20 was Dylan Larkin notching his 100th career goal on Jan. 18 vs. Florida. Larkin became the sixth Red Wings player in the last 40 years to reach that mark prior to turning 24, and the youngest to do so since Steve Yzerman. (Photo: Dave Reginek/NHLI via Getty Images)

FANTASTIC FOUR

Anthony Mantha started the 2019-20 season on a torrid pace, racking up seven points in the team's first two games, including his first career four-goal game on Oct. 6 vs. Dallas. The four-goal output represented a long list of accomplishments, including the first four-goal game for Detroit since 2010-11, and the first player to score all of the Red Wings' goals in a win with four-or-more goals scored since Sergei Fedorov in 1996-97. (Photo: Gregory Shamus/NHLI via Getty Images)

WASTING NO TIME

Highlighting Detroit's in-season acquisitions was Robby Fabbri, acquired in a trade with St. Louis on Nov. 6. After struggling to regain a regular spot in the lineup following injuries that sidelined him for nearly a year-and-a-half, Fabbri scored twice in his Red Wings debut on Nov. 8 vs. Boston. He went on to tie for fourth in team scoring with 31 points in 52 games. (Photo: Dave Reginek/NHLI via Getty Images)

PATROLLING THE BLUELINE

In his first full NHL season, Filip Hronek emerged as the team's scoring leader among defensemen in 2019-20 with 31 points in 65 games. Among Red Wings defensemen age 22-or-younger, Hronek is one of just four players to produce 30-or-more points since the 1989-90 season, joining Nicklas Lidstrom, Yves Racine and Steve Chiasson. (Photo: Gregory Shamus /NHLI via Getty Images)

GLIMPSE INTO THE FUTURE

In his second career NHL stint, former first-round pick Filip Zadina picked up his offensive production with 15 points in 28 games prior to missing the end of the season due to an ankle injury. From the time he was called up from the AHL to suffering that injury, Zadina tied with Robby Fabbri for the team lead with eight goals over that stretch. (Photo: Dave Reginek /NHLI via Getty Images)

MIKE ILITCH

Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.

He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 23 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.

The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.

The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.

Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.

In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.

One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. Currently, the headquarters campus is being expanded with an addition of a new nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.

Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.

The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and also helped promote Detroit as a tourist destination when the Detroit Tigers hosted the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.

Today – true to the vision of Mike and Marian for a bustling downtown area – the Ilitch organization is transforming dozens of blocks of largely underutilized land in Detroit into a special area for everyone in the community to enjoy. The District Detroit includes office, retail and residential spaces, as well as the new Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons, and world-class entertainment, music and community events.

Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.

The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than 3.3 million people.

Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.

Additional programs to better the community include Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation.

Since 2000, grants and giving from Mike and Marian, the Ilitch companies and their charitable affiliates have totaled $190 million. This includes Mike and Marian's personal gifts of nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million to build a new home for the Mike Ilitch School of Business, prominently located on Woodward Avenue.

Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:

- The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
- SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
- Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
- US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
- National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
- Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)

Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H. McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.

Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.

The Detroit Red Wings enter their 95th season in the National Hockey League as one of the premier franchises in professional hockey.

As the NHL's most storied American team, the Red Wings have featured some of the greatest players, coaches and executives the game has ever known. Throughout the 1900s, names like Adams, Howe, Abel, Lindsay, Sawchuk, Delvecchio and Hall became very familiar to hockey fans. The list continues today with names like Bowman, Shanahan, Fedorov, Yzerman, Lidstrom, Datsyuk and Zetterberg.

The first 94 seasons saw Detroit win 11 Stanley Cups, which is third behind only the Montreal Canadiens (23) and the Toronto Maple Leafs (13). The Red Wings most recently won Stanley Cup championships in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2008, posted the NHL's best record in the decade of the '90s and became the benchmark to which all teams throughout the NHL measure their own success.

The roots of the Red Wings go all the way back to the old Western Hockey League, where the Victoria (British Columbia) Cougars were members until their roster was sold to a group from Detroit on Sept. 25, 1926. The Detroit group had been awarded an NHL franchise on May 15, 1926.

The team began to play as the Detroit Cougars in the fall of 1926, while playing its home games in Windsor, Ontario. Despite the fact that the Victoria Cougars had won the Stanley Cup in 1925 and were Cup finalists in 1926, the Detroit Cougars finished with the NHL's worst record at 12-28-4 in 1926-27. Not only did the team struggle on the ice, but it performed poorly on the ledger sheet as well, where the Cougars were more than $80,000 in debt.

Help came the following season in the form of Jack Adams as the team's coach and general manager. Adams had played in the old Pacific Coast League and in the NHL with the Toronto St. Pats and Ottawa Senators. Adams' tenure as coach and GM would last until the 1962-63 season, when Sid Abel took over.

The team also moved into the brand new Olympia Stadium for the 1927-28 season. A Detroit and professional hockey landmark, the Olympia would serve as the home for the franchise through the midway point of the 1979-80 season.

With Adams at the helm, the team made the playoffs for the first time in franchise history (1928-29). They were still among the NHL's have-nots, however, and perpetually close to bankruptcy.

Willing to try anything, Adams changed the name to the Detroit Falcons for the 1930-31 season.

After the depression, the team went into receivership, and Adams was forced to use his own money to make payroll. It was so bad financially, that Adams joked if Montreal Canadiens superstar Howie Morenz were available for $1.98 the Falcons still couldn't afford him. Things weren't much better on the ice, as the team had only made the playoffs twice in its first six seasons.

In 1932, the financial problems ended when grain millionaire and shipping magnate James Norris Sr. purchased the team. Norris, like Adams, was a Canadian turned American. He had once played hockey for the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association's Winged Wheelers.

JAMES NORRIS, SR.

When the two men met, Norris and Adams agreed that the team's new logo would be a winged wheel and the club's nickname changed to the Red Wings.

The franchise already had a few players who would contribute to the team's first two Stanley Cups in 1936 and 1937, such as Ebbie Goodfellow, Larry Aurie, Herbie Lewis, Hec Kilrea and John Sorrell. Norris' money and Adams' ability to wheel and deal added such players as Carl Voss, Syd Howe, Marty Barry, goaltender Normie Smith, Bucko McDonald and others.

The Red Wings had an outstanding season in 1932-33 when Voss won the franchise's first award by winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's top rookie. Detroit continued its success in the following years, advancing to the semifinals against the New York Rangers in 1933 and losing in the Stanley Cup Final to the Chicago Blackhawks in 1934. Detroit slumped to under .500 and missed the playoffs in 1934-35 but came back to win the first Stanley Cup in franchise history in 1936, defeating the Toronto Maple Leafs three games to one in the finals.

The Red Wings went on to repeat as Cup champions in 1937, winning three games to two over the New York Rangers. However, one of the most memorable moments in Red Wings and NHL history came in Game 1 of the first-round series against the Montreal Maroons at the Montreal Forum on March 24, 1936. In what is still the longest game ever played in NHL history, the Red Wings defeated the Maroons 1-0 on rookie Mud Bruneteau's goal at 16:30 into the sixth overtime period. That contest also began a playoff shutout run of 248 minutes and 32 seconds for Normie Smith.

The 1936 and 1937 teams featured two of the greatest players ever to wear the winged wheel in Ebbie Goodfellow and Syd Howe. Goodfellow played with the Red Wings from the 1929-30 season until 1942-43. He was a forward for the first five seasons and led the team in scoring in 1930-31 and 1931-32. His 1930-31 total of 48 points was good for second overall in the NHL. Since the team had a surplus of forwards, however, Adams asked Goodfellow to move to defense for the 1934-35 season. He made the move and helped the team win the Cup in 1936 and 1937. He was a first team All-Star on defense in 1936-37 and 1939-40, and a second-team selection in 1935-36. Goodfellow was a player-coach in his final season, in which the Red Wings won their third Stanley Cup.

Syd Howe was also a versatile player as he manned every position but goaltender during his 17-year NHL career, which spanned from 1929-30 to 1945-46. He played with the Red Wings for the last 11 seasons of his career. Howe played with the Ottawa Senators, Philadelphia Quakers, Toronto Maple Leafs and the Senators again before the franchise moved to St. Louis (then known as the Eagles). Howe went with them, but the financially-strapped team sold Howe and defenseman Ralph (Scotty) Bowman – no relation to the Red Wings' former coach – to Detroit for Teddy Graham and $50,000.

Howe went on to help the Red Wings win their first three Stanley Cups and holds the team record for goals in a game with six on Feb. 3, 1944, against the New York Rangers at Olympia. When Howe retired in 1946, he was the NHL's all-time leading scorer with 528 points. Goodfellow was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1963 and Howe in 1965.

Sid Abel, a young man from Melville, Saskatchewan, joined the Red Wings for part of the 1938-39 season. Abel played in only 15 games with Detroit that season and 24 the next as he split time between the NHL and the American Hockey League, but he became a regular in 1940-41.

Abel finished fifth in league scoring with 49 points in 1941-42 and became the captain of the Red Wings in 1942-43.

Detroit's blue line also got a boost in 1938-39 when Jack Stewart was introduced to the NHL. His dark features and physical game earned him the nickname 'Black Jack' Stewart, as he terrorized opposing forwards with bone-crushing hits and his great strength.

The Red Wings advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1941 and 1942, losing to the Boston Bruins and the Toronto Maple Leafs, respectively. The Bruins swept the Red Wings in four games as Detroit was thwarted by the spectacular goaltending of Frank Brimsek, who lived up to his nickname of 'Mr. Zero' by allowing only six goals to Detroit in the series.

The Red Wings won the first three games of the 1942 Stanley Cup Final against the Maple Leafs, but Toronto rallied to win the next four to win the Cup. It was the first and only time a team has come back from a three games to none Cup Final deficit and only one of four times in NHL history that a team has lost a playoff series after winning the first three games (the NY Islanders came back on Pittsburgh in 1975, Philadelphia beat Boston in 2010 and Los Angeles defeated San Jose in 2014).

The Red Wings would get their revenge on the Bruins and Brimsek by winning the third Stanley Cup in team history with a four-game sweep of Boston in 1943. Detroit had also finished first overall with 61 points and a 25-14-11 record in 1942-43, the first season of the 'Original Six' six-team NHL (the league had ranged from four-to-ten teams from its beginning in 1917-18 through 1941-42). That season began what has become known as the NHL's 'Golden Age,' which lasted through the 1966-67 season, after which the league doubled in size to 12 teams.

The 1944 season saw an offensive explosion in the NHL as many of the league's best defensive players were serving in World War II (both Abel and Stewart served in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1943-44 and 1944-45). The NHL's leading scorer, Boston's Herb Cain, had 36 goals and 82 points, and the Red Wings' Carl Liscombe finished fourth in the scoring race with a team-record 36 goals, 37 assists and 73 points.

Detroit wouldn't capture the Stanley Cup again until 1950, but the late '40s would see the arrival of a group of players who would become not only Red Wing legends, but NHL legends as well.

With the promotions of Ted Lindsay (1944-45), Gordie Howe (1946-47), Red Kelly (1947-48) and Terry Sawchuk (1949-50) to the NHL and the return of both Abel and Stewart from the RCAF, one of the greatest dynasties in NHL history was set into motion.

Adams handed the coaching reins to Tommy Ivan after the 1946-47 season. Detroit finished second overall during the 1947-48 regular season, five points behind the Toronto Maple Leafs, but the team ran off a streak of seven-straight first overall finishes from 1948-49 through 1954-55 and won four Stanley Cups (1950, 1952, 1954 and 1955).

Lindsay, Howe and Abel terrorized the NHL as members of the 'Production Line.' Kelly became the NHL's top offensive defenseman and Stewart provided more physical play on the blue line before being traded after Detroit won the 1950 Stanley Cup. The Red Wings can thank Pete Babando for that triumph, as he tallied the clinching goal eight minutes and thirty-one seconds into the second overtime period of Game 7 to defeat the New York Rangers four games to three.

Detroit proved to be a talented and deep squad in the 1950 playoffs when Gordie Howe suffered a serious head injury in Game 1 of the first-round playoff series against the Toronto Maple Leafs. Howe almost died and would miss the remainder of the playoffs, but he was out of the hospital in time to join his teammates for the on-ice celebration after Babando's goal in Game 7. The first round of the 1950 playoffs had also featured overtime heroics as Leo Reise scored the OT winners in Games 4 and 7.

Veteran goaltender Harry Lumley backstopped Detroit to the 1950 Stanley Cup victory, but Sawchuk was so impressive in a seven-game call-up from the minors while Lumley was injured that Lumley was traded to the Chicago Blackhawks before the 1950-51 season to make room for Sawchuk.

Other future Red Wing greats arrived during this period. Defenseman Marcel Pronovost was with the team during the 1949-50 season but didn't play. He made his Detroit debut the following season along with Alex Delvecchio.

Sawchuk staged one of the greatest performances in Stanley Cup playoff history when Detroit captured the 1952 Stanley Cup. He allowed only five goals in eight games as the Red Wings swept both the Toronto Maple Leafs and Montreal Canadiens in four games. Even more incredibly, Sawchuk didn't give up a single goal in any of the four games played at Olympia Stadium.

That was also the first appearance of an octopus on Detroit ice at a hockey game. The eight tentacles represented the eight games that a team needed to win at that time to capture the Stanley Cup.

Another significant event came during the first round of the 1956 playoffs. Lindsay and Howe had received death threats if they played in Game 4 in Toronto; however, both played and the Wings won to end the series. After the game, Lindsay playfully chided the Toronto fans when he skated to center ice and held his stick like a machine gun and pretended to shoot the crowd.

The 1953-54 season was Ivan's last as a coach and the Red Wings gave him a grand send-off with their third Cup in five seasons. The team then repeated as Cup champs the following season in Jimmy Skinner's first season behind the Detroit bench. The Red Wings defeated the Montreal Canadiens in the finals both seasons, winning in five games in 1954 thanks to Tony Leswick's OT goal in Game 5 and in seven games in 1955.

After dropping the 1956 finals to the Canadiens in five games, it seemed that the Red Wings' dynasty would go on for the near future but questionable trades by Adams gutted the team of many good and great players.

Stars like Sawchuk, Lindsay, Kelly and young players like Glenn Hall and Johnny Bucyk were traded between 1955 and 1960 with the team receiving little in exchange. Sawchuk did return to Detroit, but one of the players sent to the Bruins to reacquire him was Bucyk, who went on to become one of the best left wingers in NHL history.

ALEX DELVECCHIO, GORDIE HOWE & FRANK MAHOVLICH

Detroit did not return to the Stanley Cup Final until 1961, losing to the Chicago Blackhawks. The Red Wings went on to advance to the Cup Final in three of four seasons from 1963-66, but lost each time. The team, now coached by Sid Abel, lost to the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1963 (five games) and 1964 (seven games), and to the Montreal Canadiens in 1966 (six games). It would be 29 years before the Wings would return to the Cup Final and 31 years before they would record another victory in a Stanley Cup Final game.

There had been jubilation at the Olympia on Nov. 10, 1963, when Howe broke Maurice 'Rocket' Richard's record for most career NHL goals with his 545th against Richard's former team, the Montreal Canadiens, and goaltender Charlie Hodge.

Detroit reached the playoffs four times from 1966-67 through 1985-86, a period that was highlighted by the veteran line of Howe, Delvecchio and Frank Mahovlich during the 1968-69 and 1969-70 seasons.

#20 - MICKEY REDMOND

Mickey Redmond became the first Red Wing to score 50 goals in a season in 1972-73 (he would do it again in '73-74). Other highlights during the 1970s included Marcel Dionne's 121 points and Danny Grant's 50 goals in 1974-75.

The team moved to Joe Louis Arena in December 1979 and hosted the NHL All-Star Game in January 1980. The contest featured 50-year old Gordie Howe, who was in his last season with the Hartford Whalers after returning to pro hockey in 1973-74 with the World Hockey Association. He had retired from the Red Wings following the 1970-71 season.

The Norris family finally sold the Red Wings in 1982 to Mike and Marian Ilitch, who owned Little Caesars Pizza.

One of their first hires was Jimmy Devellano as the team's general manager. His first move was to select a shy, 18-year old center named Steve Yzerman with the fourth overall pick of the 1983 NHL Draft.

Detroit made the playoffs in both 1983-84 and 1984-85, but lost in the first round each season. The Red Wings collected only 40 points in 1985-86 to finish last overall in the NHL, but the disappointing campaign would prove as one step backwards before Detroit would take several steps forward in the right direction.

Detroit hired Jacques Demers, coach of the St. Louis Blues, as their new head coach. Not only did the Red Wings make the playoffs in each of Demers' first two seasons, but they also advanced to the Campbell Conference Finals each season, losing to the Edmonton Oilers in five games both times.

Demers named the 21-year-old Yzerman team captain in 1986. The squad featured other young players like Gerard Gallant, Petr Klima, Bob Probert, Shawn Burr, Adam Oates, Joe Kocur and Steve Chiasson as well as veterans like Dave Barr, Lee Norwood, Tim Higgins, Gilbert Delorme and Harold Snepsts. Demers won the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's Coach of the Year in both 1986-87 and 1987-88.

In 1988-89, Yzerman set franchise records for goals, assists and points with 65 goals, 90 assists and 155 points, which continues to be the highest season point total in NHL history for a player not named Gretzky or Lemieux. Yzerman and linemates Gallant and Paul MacLean combined for 319 points, the most by any line in Red Wings history. Despite their stellar play, Detroit lost in the first round of the playoffs.

The 1989-90 season saw the Red Wings miss the playoffs, ending Demers' run as the Wings head coach. He was replaced by former Washington Capitals coach Bryan Murray, who was also named the team's general manager. The disappointing 1989-90 season would be the last time Detroit would miss the playoffs for a quarter-century, as the franchise authored the third-longest consecutive postseason streak in NHL history by making the playoffs for 25-straight seasons from 1990-91 to 2015-16.

Young players like Sergei Fedorov, Nicklas Lidstrom, Vladimir Konstantinov, Slava Kozlov, Keith Primeau, Martin Lapointe, Darren McCarty and Chris Osgood reached the NHL with the Red Wings and veterans such as Dino Ciccarelli, Paul Coffey and Ray Sheppard were acquired via trade.

All but Primeau, Ciccarelli, Coffey and Sheppard contributed to the Red Wings' Stanley Cup victories in 1997 and 1998.

The Red Wings made the playoffs in 1990-91, but were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the St. Louis Blues. Over the next three seasons, the Red Wings were one of the most prolific offensive teams in the NHL and one of the best during the regular season. Detroit finished third in goals in 1991-92 and advanced to the second round before being eliminated by Chicago.

The Red Wings led the NHL in scoring the following two seasons, but were eliminated in the first round both years (Toronto and San Jose).

Murray was fired as coach after the 1992-93 season and the legendary Scotty Bowman was hired to replace him behind the bench. After the team was eliminated by the Sharks, Murray was fired as G.M. He was replaced by a combination of Devellano (who had become the team's senior vice-president when Murray was hired in 1990), assistant general manager Ken Holland, and Bowman (who would serve as the player personnel director).

Bowman did what many considered unthinkable as he took the league's most potent offensive team and began to emphasize defense. He and associate coaches Barry Smith and Dave Lewis instituted the 'left-wing lock system' and veteran defensemen Bob Rouse and Mike Ramsey were signed as free agents. The team also traded defenseman Steve Chiasson to the Calgary Flames for veteran goaltender Mike Vernon during the off-season. That gave the team an experienced goaltender to go along with a young Chris Osgood, who had come up during the 1993-94 season and had been forced to play in the playoffs.

Fedorov came of age during the 1993-94 season as he finished second in the league in scoring with 120 points (56 goals and 64 assists) and won both the Hart Trophy as the NHL MVP and the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward. Sheppard also scored 50 goals (52-41-93) to give the Red Wings the first 50-goal pair in franchise history.

The Red Wings were ready to build off that success, but the 1994-95 regular season didn't begin until January due to a lockout. When the season did begin, the Red Wings were the best: Coffey won the Norris Trophy as the NHL's top defenseman during the regular season, the Wings clinched the Presidents' Trophy and later advanced to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since 1966. The Wings, however, were not able to reach their ultimate goal when they were swept by the New Jersey Devils in the Cup Final.

The following regular season was even better as the team won 62 games to break the NHL record for most wins in one season. Not only were the Red Wings a success on the ice, they were a huge story off of it.

Yzerman discovered how Red Wings fans felt about him once and for all. With rumors of a trade swirling, he received a tremendous, deafening ovation when he was introduced at the 1995-96 home opener at Joe Louis Arena. Fans shouted 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' 'Stevie!' That moment made it clear Yzerman would remain a Red Wing for life.

Early in the season, Detroit sent Sheppard to the San Jose Sharks for veteran Igor Larionov. He teamed up with Fedorov, Kozlov, Konstantinov and veteran defenseman Slava Fetisov, who had been acquired from New Jersey at the trade deadline the previous season, to form the first all-Russian five-man unit in NHL history. The 'Russian Five' dazzled opponents with their skill and skating ability, becoming the Red Wings' personality.

Individually, Coffey became the first defenseman to collect 1,000 assists, Yzerman scored the 500th goal of his career during the 1995-96 season and Bowman broke the record for the most NHL games coached.

The Red Wings had much to celebrate at the 1996 NHL Awards Show as Bowman won the Jack Adams Award, Osgood and Vernon shared the Jennings Trophy (team with the fewest goals against) and Fedorov repeated as the Selke Trophy winner.

But once again it was playoff disappointment for Detroit, as they were eliminated in the Western Conference Final by the Colorado Avalanche, who would go on to win the 1996 Stanley Cup. That series began the fierce rivalry between the Red Wings and the Avalanche. The most significant incident came in Game 6 when Claude Lemieux drilled the Red Wings' Kris Draper into the boards from behind, resulting in serious facial injuries.

Ciccarelli was traded during the off-season but the Wings weren't done trading, sending Primeau, Coffey and a first-round pick in the 1997 draft to the Hartford Whalers for left wing Brendan Shanahan and minor league defenseman Brian Glynn.

Shanahan was one of the final pieces in Detroit's Stanley Cup puzzle and went on to score 46 goals that season. Veteran defenseman Larry Murphy was acquired at the trade deadline and Joe Kocur, who had been traded to the Rangers in 1991, returned to Detroit as a free agent in December 1996.

The most memorable moment of the regular season came on March 26, 1997, when Darren McCarty exacted revenge on Claude Lemieux for the hit on Draper. It came during an on-ice brawl which featured Colorado goaltender Patrick Roy and Wings goaltender Mike Vernon in a slugfest at center ice. The frenzy helped rally the Wings from a two-goal deficit to a 6-5 overtime victory as McCarty got the game-winner. When Detroit went on to win the Stanley Cup, each player pointed to that game as the moment they became a team.

VLADIMIR KONSTANTINOV & 1998 STANLEY CUP® CHAMPIONS

In the playoffs, Detroit defeated the Blues in six games, swept the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in four games (three of which went to overtime), took the Avalanche in six games in the Western Conference Final and swept the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1997 Stanley Cup Final.

Finally, the Red Wings and their fans had won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years. Steve Yzerman's smile as he accepted the Stanley Cup and skated around the Joe Louis Arena ice personified all the emotions the crowd and team were feeling – joy, relief, exuberance and satisfaction. Vernon was voted the Conn Smythe Trophy winner as the playoff MVP.

Tragedy would strike just six days later when Vladimir Konstantinov and team masseur Sergei Mnatsakanov were critically injured in a one-vehicle limousine accident. Fetisov was also in the limousine, but his injuries weren't nearly as serious and he returned to play the following season. For Konstantinov and Mnatsakanov, it was the end of their careers.

Vernon, who wanted a three-year contract, was dealt to the San Jose Sharks. Ken Holland also became the team's general manager that summer.

Despite the loss of one of the NHL's best defensemen in Konstantinov, the Red Wings played like champions throughout the regular season. The fact the team was never able to truly celebrate its Stanley Cup victory and the constant thoughts of their stricken teammates propelled a driven Red Wings team into the playoffs.

After defeating the Phoenix Coyotes, St. Louis Blues and Dallas Stars in the first three rounds, Detroit swept the Washington Capitals in the Stanley Cup Final with Yzerman winning the Conn Smythe Trophy. After accepting the 1998 Stanley Cup for a consecutive year, the Captain placed it on the lap of Konstantinov. The entire team surrounded Konstantinov, creating an emotional scene that touched fans throughout the sports world. Media from all over the NHL wrote that never had one team deserved to repeat as much as this Red Wings squad.

Their Colorado rival may have eliminated the Red Wings in the second round of the playoffs over the next two seasons, but there was plenty of individual achievement and player movement. In 1998-99, Larry Murphy passed Tim Horton to become the all-time games played leader among defensemen in NHL history.

A surprise came at the trade deadline when longtime Red Wings' nemesis Chris Chelios was acquired from the Chicago Blackhawks. Another surprise acquisition was made when former Dallas Stars forward Pat Verbeek was signed as a free agent. That set up a season of milestones for the Red Wings in 1999-00. Yzerman scored goal No. 600, Verbeek tallied No. 500, Shanahan collected No. 400 and Fedorov earned No. 300. Yzerman also recorded his 1,500th point and 900th assist, while Verbeek registered his 1,000th point.

By the end of the season, only Gordie Howe had played more NHL games than Murphy. The postseason honors continued as Yzerman won the Selke Trophy and was among three Red Wings, along with Shanahan and Lidstrom, to be selected as First Team All-Stars.

The Red Wings finished with the league's second-best record in 2000-01, but were eliminated by Los Angeles during the first round of the 2001 playoffs. After finishing second in Norris Trophy voting for three straight years, Nicklas Lidstrom finally won his first Norris Trophy as the NHL's best defenseman.

#19 - STEVE YZERMAN 2002 STANLEY CUP© CHAMPION

Significant moves were made during the summer of 2001. Future Hall of Fame players Dominik Hasek, Brett Hull and Luc Robitaille were added to Detroit's already potent roster. The moves resulted in a league-best 116 points, culminating with the 10th Stanley Cup in franchise history after the Red Wings defeated the Carolina Hurricanes in five games during the 2002 Stanley Cup Final.

Lidstrom, who would go on to win his second-straight Norris Trophy a week after winning the Cup, became the first European-born player to win the Conn Smythe as the playoff MVP. With an NHL-record ninth Stanley Cup as a head coach, Bowman stepped down, retiring after nine seasons behind the Red Wings' bench. The team would eventually be known as the "Hall of Fame Team," as nine members would go on to be inducted in the Hockey Hall of Fame (Chelios, Fedorov, Hasek, Hull, Larionov, Lidstrom, Robitaille, Shanahan and Yzerman).

Several Red Wings reached major milestones throughout the 2002-03 season, including Hull becoming just the sixth player in NHL history to reach 700 goals. He finished the season with 716 goals, making him fifth best all-time.

The Red Wings took home some hardware at the 2003 NHL Awards when Lidstrom won his third-consecutive Norris Trophy, and Steve Yzerman was awarded the Masterton Trophy for perseverance. He returned to the Detroit lineup late in the regular season following serious offseason knee surgery. Brendan Shanahan was also named the King Clancy Memorial Award winner for his humanitarian efforts, and Darren McCarty was given the NHL Foundation Player Award for his contributions in the community.

The Red Wings brought in Mike Babcock in 2005-06 to take over as head coach for the departed Dave Lewis, who had taken the reigns following Bowman's retirement in 2002. In the first year under Babcock's direction, the Red Wings would win 58 games during the regular season, the second most in franchise history, and capture the Presidents' Trophy as the NHL's regular season champions. Detroit also set an NHL record with 31 road wins. Babcock would go on to become the winningest coach in Red Wings history.

A strong regular season would not translate into postseason success however, as the Red Wings lost in six games to the eighth-seeded Edmonton Oilers in the first round of the playoffs. Lidstrom won his fourth career Norris Trophy and began a stretch of three-straight seasons of winning the award, while center Pavel Datsyuk took home the first of his four-consecutive Lady Byng Trophies, one-of-two players in league history to accomplish that feat.

The 2006-07 season saw the Red Wings once again reach the 50-win plateau and top the Western Conference with a 50-19-13 record. The Red Wings tied Buffalo atop the NHL standings with 113 points; however, the Sabres won the Presidents' Trophy on a tiebreaker. Detroit's postseason fortunes took a turn as the Red Wings knocked off both Calgary and San Jose in six games each, though the eventual Stanley Cup-champion Anaheim Ducks halted the run in the Western Conference Final.

Stanley returned to Hockeytown in 2008 after a strong regular season campaign. The Red Wings topped 50-wins for a third-consecutive season (54-21-7) and captured the Presidents' Trophy for the sixth time in franchise history. Detroit disposed of the Nashville Predators in round one (six games), swept the Colorado Avalanche in round two, defeated the Dallas Stars in the Western Conference Final (six games) and knocked off the Pittsburgh Penguins in six games in the Stanley Cup Final to win the 11th Cup in franchise history.

Lidstrom became the first European-born captain to win the Stanley Cup. Henrik Zetterberg was named playoff MVP, joining Lidstrom as the only European players to win the award. The postseason honors continued with Lidstrom winning his third-straight Norris, Datsyuk capturing both the first of three-straight Selke Trophies and his third-straight Lady Byng Trophy, and Chris Osgood and Hasek were awarded the Jennings trophy for fewest goals allowed during the regular season (184).

In an effort to bolster their chances of becoming the first team to repeat as Stanley Cup champions since doing so in 1997 and 1998, the Red Wings inked star forward Marian Hossa to a one-year deal during the offseason, paving the way to a return trip to the Stanley Cup Final. The Red Wings set numerous records in 2008-09, becoming the first team in NHL history to reach the 100-point plateau in nine-straight seasons and winning 50 games for the fourth-straight year, marking the third time in league history a team has done that.

Detroit swept Columbus in the first round of the postseason but needed seven games to advance past Anaheim in the second round. The Red Wings dispatched Chicago in five games during the Western Conference Final to face-off against the Penguins for a Stanley Cup Final rematch. Detroit came up one game short, however, suffering a disappointing 2-1 home loss in Game 7.

The Red Wings authored a 10th-consecutive 100-point season in 2009-10, putting up 102 points over an injury-plagued campaign, needing a late season push to climb to the fifth-seed in the Western Conference playoffs. Thoughts of a third-straight run to the Stanley Cup Final were ended with a five-game second-round loss to San Jose after a seven-game series win over Phoenix in the first round. Datsyuk captured his third-straight Selke, while goaltender Jimmy Howard broke onto the scene with a Calder Trophy nomination.

The early part of the 2010s saw more of the same for the Red Wings, who were annually a popular pre-season pick to make a run at a 12th Stanley Cup championship due to a core lineup group that included the prime years of Henrik Zetterberg and Pavel Datsyuk, the ever-consistent play of then-captain Nicklas Lidstrom, and a promising younger nucleus which included the likes of Niklas Kronwall, Valtteri Filppula and Jimmy Howard. Despite extending their NHL record-streak of consecutive 100-point regular seasons to 12-straight by the 2011-12 season, salary cap constraints and years of more frequently being a buyer than a seller in the trade market, eventually slowed the Red Wings' impressive run. Ultimately, the team ended the league's third-longest streak of consecutive playoff appearances at 25 following the 2015-16 season, becoming the last team to miss the playoffs in the salary cap era (since 2005-06).

#5 - NICKLAS LIDSTROM 2008 STANLEY CUP© CHAMPION

In 2010-11, Detroit claimed its ninth Central Division title in the last 10 years, and Lidstrom tied Doug Harvey for the second-most Norris Trophy wins all-time with his seventh. Chris Osgood also made history by becoming the 10th goaltender in league history to win 400 career games, doing so in spectacular fashion with a career-high 46 saves in an overtime win over Colorado. The following season, the Red Wings made more history by logging 23-straight regular-season home wins, undefeated at Joe Louis Arena from Nov. 5-Feb. 19. Lidstrom announced his retirement following the season, ending a first-ballot Hall of Fame career with four Stanley Cups, seven Norris Trophies, 1,564 total games played and the distinction of never missing the playoffs during his illustrious 20-year career.

Zetterberg was named the 36th captain franchise history prior to the 2012-13 season and would guide the Red Wings to playoff berths in each of his first four seasons as captain. The Red Wings also shifted back to the Eastern Conference for the 2013-14 campaign, after NHL realignment saw them placed in the Atlantic Division. That season, the Red Wings set a franchise record for man games lost due to injury or illness (421), and Mike Babcock became the winningest coach in franchise history (passing Scotty Bowman and Jack Adams) in his final season behind the bench.

Jeff Blashill succeeded Babcock as head coach after leading the American Hockey League's Grand Rapids Griffins to a 2013 Calder Cup championship, setting the stage for a number of AHL-to-NHL graduations of the team's top prospects over the next several seasons, including Gustav Nyquist, Tomas Tatar and Danny DeKeyser. Detroit qualified for the playoffs in Blashill's first season as head coach but suffered a second-consecutive first-round playoff loss to the Tampa Bay Lightning, who were guided by former Red Wings captain Steve Yzerman as general manager.

The next several seasons saw the Red Wings become a team in transition, as their two-and-a-half decades of annual postseason contention resulted in years of both a low draft position and a number of early-round draft picks traded for veteran players, combined with an aging core, and Detroit's incredible consecutive postseason streak finally came to an end in 2016-17. That season marked a transition on many fronts, as it was the Red Wings' final season playing at Joe Louis Arena. The riverfront venue hosted its final NHL game on April 9, 2017, with Zetterberg notching a goal and an assist in what was also his 1,000th NHL game.

The Red Wings moved to a new stadium in the heart of downtown Detroit in 2017-18 – the state-of-the-art, award-winning Little Caesars Arena – which, combined with the NBA's Detroit Pistons move from the Palace of Auburn Hills to Little Caesars Arena, gives the city of Detroit the unique distinction of having the closest proximity of its four major professional sports teams (along with the MLB's Detroit Tigers and NFL's Detroit Lions).

JANUARY 15, 2013 – HENRIK ZETTERBERG NAMED 36TH CAPTAIN

The team did not qualify for the playoffs in either 2017-18 or 2018-19, but saw veteran players like Henrik Zetterberg and Niklas Kronwall lead by example in an effort to pass on the Red Wings' winning culture to a new generation, before ending their careers in 2018 and 2019, respectively.

On April 19, 2019, the Red Wings introduced Steve Yzerman as the team's executive vice president and general manager, welcoming him back to the organization he spent 27 years with as a player and in the front office after he built the Lightning into one of the NHL's model franchises for becoming a Stanley Cup contender through drafting and development over his eight seasons as general manager. Yzerman inherits a lineup with many young players set to push for roster spots over the next several seasons, as outgoing general manager Ken Holland amassed a plethora of draft picks and prospects over his final years in the role. Yzerman's first season at the helm proved to be memorable in several aspects, perhaps most notably as the Red Wings played just 71 games as the NHL season was paused in March due to the COVID-19 pandemic and later restarted with Detroit as one of the seven teams that did not qualify for the expanded postseason.

As the Red Wings are set to hit the ice again in 2020-21 for a scheduled 56-game slate to start in January 2021, the team has missed the playoffs in each of the last four years, but have seen the core of the roster get younger with the likes of Dylan Larkin, Anthony Mantha, Tyler Bertuzzi and Filip Hronek earning larger roles on the team, and more talented prospects expected to arrive in the coming seasons. Over the last four NHL Entry Drafts, the Red Wings have selected a league-high 43 players, including 14 who were first- or second-round draft picks, including top-10 picks Michael Rasmussen, Filip Zadina, Moritz Seider and Lucas Raymond. With a combined philosophy of investing more resources into player development and bolstering the current roster with short-term free-agent contracts and trades, the Red Wings are in the midst of adding to that young core in an effort to lead the team back to Stanley Cup contention in the years to come.

FIL HITS 1,000

Back in 2019-20 for his second stint with the Red Wings after winning a Stanley Cup in Detroit in 2008, Valtteri Filppula celebrated an historic milestone in the city where he started his NHL career, skating in his 1,000th NHL game on Feb. 1 vs. NY Rangers. Filppula became the 345th player in NHL history to reach that mark, and just the eighth Finnish player to do so. (Photo: Dave Reginek/NHLI via Getty Images)

As a key anchor of the world-class sports and entertainment district known as The District Detroit, Little Caesars Arena is one of the most innovative, intimate and exciting venues in the world.

Led by the Ilitch organization, The District Detroit unites eight world-class theaters and three professional sports venues in one vibrant, walkable destination for people to live, work and play in an exciting urban environment.

Home to the Detroit Red Wings, Pistons, Tigers and Lions, The District Detroit represents the greatest density of professional sports teams in one downtown core in the country. And in the heart of the action, Little Caesars Arena has hosted more than 6.5 million guests since its September 2017 opening.

The most bustling area of the arena is the Via, a streetscape-inspired indoor concourse with restaurants and historical memorabilia surrounding the arena bowl with an authentic urban feel. Guests are afforded a vast array of dining options inside Little Caesars Arena, including seven restaurants and seven bars.

Outside the arena is vibrant and exciting as well. Guests in the Chevrolet Plaza regularly enjoy music and entertainment in a unique atmosphere with a massive video wall for viewing parties, outdoor concerts, tailgating and more. Just north of the Chevrolet Plaza is the Budweiser Biergarten, featuring a spacious patio and lawn area for various public and private events, along with a glass-enclosed, four-season pavilion bar – featuring a retractable roof and walls to accommodate all types of weather.

For more information about Little Caesars Arena, visit DistrictDetroit.com or call 313-471-7575.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout*

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game Played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-Winning Goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-Against Average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-Killing Pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-Minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-Play Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-Play Percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save Percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting Percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthand Goal: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on Goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

Tenths of a Second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches Record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
